Advanced Explorations Inc. Welcomes Jim Excell to Board of Directors

TORONTO, ONTARIO--(Marketwire - Oct. 15, 2009) - Advanced Explorations Inc. (the "Company" or "AEI")(TSX VENTURE:AXI)(FRANKFURT:AE6) is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Jim Excell as a new board director after having worked with AEI as a Special Advisor since February. Jim Excell brings more than three decades of operating and major project management experience in the mining industry to the AEI board. He managed and developed some of the world's premier mining projects in Canada, the United States and Australia, including the EKATI Diamond Mine in the Northwest Territories.

AEI will also benefit from Jim's extensive knowledge in establishing good relations with aboriginal groups having negotiated four Impacts and Benefits Agreements (IBA) for mining permits in the Arctic. In addition, he has an intimate understanding of the iron ore mining and processing business based on over 15 years of experience in the industry having started his mining career at BHP.

John Gingerich, President and CEO, commented:

"We are extremely proud that Jim is joining the board of directors as he brings a wealth of talent and experience the Company will benefit from. His knowledge in IBA permitting, the iron ore industry and mining in the North are key assets AEI requires to move forward with the development of the Roche Bay iron ore project. We welcome Jim to our board, and we are looking forward to working with him".

Advanced Explorations also wishes to announce that it will be present with a booth (#506) at the 10th Annual Global Chinese Financial Forum on Saturday, October 17, 2009 at the Hilton Suites Toronto/ Markham Conference Centre. While the current business plan has a significant North American/European focus, the Company will continue to maintain its established connections to China, as well. The recently announced amended off-take agreement with China Mining Finance Partners Co. Ltd. allows them to facilitate the sale of up to 190,000 tpa of high quality iron nugget product (greater than 95% Fe) which corresponds to 19% of the total annual production currently estimated to be 1 million tonnes. The agreement provides for an increase to 350,000 tonnes under certain financing conditions and if expansions in production are being met. This agreement highlights just one of AEI's achievements with the Chinese community.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD
